PATTY HAJDU by Matt Vis

Q: What made you first decide to enter the political ring?
PH: After working in public health on drug policy and then directly with people who were deeply affected by poverty, social exclusion and substance use issues at Shelter House, I came to realize that good social policy really is good fiscal policy. I knew that when we spend money on housing, education, and the basic necessities of life that give everyone an equal chance to succeed, all of us thrive. I wanted to be part of a system that could affect deeper change, and I wondered what it might be like to fight for good policy from the inside of the federal political system, rather than from the outside.

Q: What was your reaction when you were told you were being appointed to cabinet?
PH: My reaction was that of incredible surprise. When I found out I was being considered, I was not told for what position. I wasn't at all considering it would be a ministerial position. I thought maybe it might be for the role of parliamentary secretary, maybe for health, given my experience. However when I met with the Prime Minister about five days before the ceremony, and he told me the position he was offering me, I was stunned. I was very honoured by his decision of course. It was a short meeting, because I was a bit at a loss for words, which most people will know is not characteristic of me.

Q: What is the proudest moment of your political career thus far?
PH: I am not sure there is just one moment, but I think the work I have done on designing the Murdered and Missing Indigenous Women and Girls Inquiry has been very moving and very important, especially in the pre-consultation phase where we listened to over 2000 people in person. I was deeply connected to this issue given my work at Shelter House and knew that it was a very important commitment we made in the campaign.

Q: How do you describe Thunder Bay to your colleagues who have never been to the city?
PH: Beautiful and resilient. I have been working on luring my cabinet colleagues to Northern Ontario and our city and am making some headway! I in particular would love to see Minister Chagger in Thunder Bay as she is responsible for tourism. I love living on Lake Superior and know that despite our challenges, we have so much to offer in our part of Canada. I also tell colleagues about how resilient our citizens are and how innovative we are in the north.

Q: Where's the one place you need to eat when you come back to Thunder Bay?
PH: It's hard to choose one! Actually that's one of the things I tell my colleagues: that we have a booming restaurant industry in Thunder Bay, with lots and lots of local food available and on the menu of many restaurants. For breakfast, my three favourites are Roosters, Niva's and Made Fresh. I love the Organic Cafe and Growing Season for lunch. And for dinner we have so much choice with unique offerings like Tomlin, Sovereign Room and Uptown Cut. But I've eaten at almost all of our locally owned restaurants and it's hard to choose every time!

Q: Describe how you would spend an ideal summer day.
PH: There's nothing like a great summer day in Thunder Bay Superior North. With so many festivals throughout the summer, an ideal day would consist of the following. First I'd walk my two dogs in one of our fantastic off leash areas. Getting up early, there's a good chance we will see one of the city resident deer! Then I'd do a bit of gardening around the house, and finally head to a festival in the area. I love hanging out on my deck, so in the evening, I'd want to spend it outside with my family and friends. And heading to the Marina is always a great way to spend a beautiful day in Thunder Bay as well.

Patio retreats pt. 2

by The Dining Lady & Scott Paradis

We began our guide to great summertime patios in the June edition of The Guest. Now here are some more great places to get some sun with your food and drink.

Masala Grille is an East Indian, Pakistani, and Thai restaurant located at 170 Algoma Street North. They have a beautiful outdoor patio area where you relax as you enjoy lunch or dinner.

Beaux Daddy's is located at 1575 Hwy 61 -- just a few minutes past the Thunder Bay International Airport.

The Neebing Roadhouse is located at 2121 Hwy 61 and they have a beautiful outdoor patio area where you can relax and enjoy your food.

5 Forks is located at 1072 Oliver Road where it meets Golf Links Road. They have one of my favourite patio areas with an amazing outdoor fireplace.

Mongo's Bar & Grill located at 1075 Memorial Avenue and they also offer an outdoor seating area. Mongo's is a stir fry restaurant where guests pick and choose their own food and sauces and then watch as it is cooked on a grill for them

Nor'westor Best Western's Cliffhanger Restaurant also has an amazing outdoor seating area with a stunning view of the Nor'westor Mountains.

Whitewater Golf Course located at 1961 King George's Park Drive and they feature a beautiful outdoor patio with views that over-look the golf course.

The only Asian restaurant in town that will be offering an outdoor patio is Mr. Chinese. Mr. Chinese is located at 615 West Arthur Street.

ExCuria is located at 135 North Archibald Street and will be a gastro-pub that offers up some amazing food.

The Nook, the Italian-inspired restaurant opening at 271 Bay Street, also has a stunning outdoor patio area.

Check out The Dining Lady on tbnewswatch.com for the complete list.

ONTARIO PROVINCIAL PARKS
KAKABEKA FALLS PROVINCIAL PARK

The park is dominated by a single, spectacular feature, Kakabeka Falls, which drops 40 metres over sheer cliffs. Below the falls is a dramatic gorge carved out of the Precambrian Shield by the meltwater from the last glaciers. The ancient, volcanic rock over which the water tumbles holds many secrets. From beneath its layers, 1.6-billion-year-old fossils have been unearthed. Since 1904, the river has been tapped to produce a steady flow of hydroelectric power. MT. MCKAY SCENIC LOOKOUT

Visit Mount McKay Scenic Lookout and explore the age old Indian legends and traditions of our area. Towering 1,000 feet over the city, Mount McKay is a must on your list of attractions. At the 500 ft. level the lookout offers a magnificent panorama with a viewing scope for a closer look and new skyline walkway with a great picnic area snack bar. Thunder Mountain was the original name for Mount McKay. Here, traditional native gatherings were held on this sacred ground. Prior to the development of road access to the lookout only traditional native people were allowed access to the grounds, which is considered a nesting area for the Anemki or Thunderbird. A large white cross has been placed on a mountain ledge to commemorate Indian people who have served our country in time of war.
