In the 1970s CN sought to rid itself of passenger trains. The decline of passenger rail became a federal election issue in 1974 when the government of Pierre Trudeau promised to implement a nationwide carrier similar to Amtrak in the United States. The bilingual name Via or Via CN originated in 1976 as a marketing term for Canadian National's passenger train services and the Via logo began to

Wabakimi Wilderness Park
Wabakimi Wilderness Park is the largest wilderness paddling area in the world... many times the size of Quetico and the B.W.C.A. It has hundreds of lakes and rivers, world class canoeing and kayaking (less than 1000 paddlers each year) and about 25 fly-in outposts for fishing, naturalists and families. It is home to lots of wildlife like a herd of rare woodland caribou, eagles, wolves and moose. Fishing for walleye, trout and huge northern pike is incredible. Wabakimi is accessible only by bushtrain, floatplane or canoe. Armstrong area outfitters have many services, including maps, permits and route planning.

Terry Fox Tourist Information Centre

A large, traditional Chinese-style building with a tiled roof and red pillars, identified as the Terry Fox Tourist Information Centre. The building features a long, low profile with a series of red pillars supporting a dark, tiled roof. The facade is primarily red with some yellow accents. The building is surrounded by a paved area and some greenery.

A 9-foot high bronze statue, set on a 45-ton granite base with a foundation of local amethyst, commands a breathtaking view of Lake Superior. The statue was erected in memory of Terry Fox, the courageous one-legged runner who embarked on a cross-country run to cancer research - the Marathon of Hope. The site is not far from the place where he ended his 5,342 km (3,339 mi) run, stricken with the disease that ended his life on June 28, 1981. Hwy 11/17 (Thunder Bay Expressway), 1 Km. (6 miles) east of Hunder Ave. Visitor information:
